About This Game

Lucky Panda is a simple platformer with elements of survival in which you have to pass a variety of locations for the defenseless Panda. Imagine that your species is dying, you must do everything to survive. Be careful- on your way are many various enemies and traps that are waiting for your death. The essence of the game is to collect all the shoots of bamboo at a level which opens the cabin of the Panda, hiding in which will take you to the next level. Good luck!

the reason not to buy this game (I'll be quick to summarize)

- 1 - is a platform game in which the main character does not move his legs while running, he looks like a sticker flying around.
- 2 - sometimes the jump key does not work
- 3 - I could not get past the first level (tryed like 20 times)
- 4 - tryed to give a review and:

You need to have used this product for at least 5 minutes before posting a review for it (3 minutes on record).

fkkkkkkkk

- 5 - I could not get past the first level (tryed like more 20 times). Seems like a really early version. Fun yet kinda difficult game. check it out:

<https://youtu.be/DH-SBiurUyg>. You play as a panda. what more could i ask for.

10V10. This game should be named "Unlucky Panda n Player" anyway...

Kinda difficult even for kids...

N about Steam Trading Cards? Its a trap mother\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665er.... This is a very new game and seems to be an early attempt. There are some bugs here and there but overall it plays quite well. from the limited time I have played here are my observations:

- Needs animations for the player character
- When hit by the green enemies the death animation does not play
- Maybe add a health system instead of insta-kills?
- Consider adding text to guide a player through the game and telling them what to do to teach them the basics

But overall, while not perfect, this game is still fun and I can't really complain for the price.
